Profile

As a dedicated frontend developer, I bring a creative and detail-oriented approach to crafting seamless and visually stunning user experiences. With a solid foundation in HTML, CSS, JavaScript and React JS, I thrive on transforming design concepts into responsive, pixel-perfect websites. Currently I am seeking a fulltime job as a Frontend Developer.

Projects

Crypto currency Tracker.

Github link:- <https://github.com/Lucky12-call/Crypto-Currency-Tracker.git>

This project serves as a cryptocurrency tracker, providing users with real-time updates on trending currencies. The main section displays the most popular cryptocurrencies, while a search feature allows users to find specific currencies by name or title. Search results are presented in a table format for easy reference. Additionally, users can click on any currency to access its dedicated page, featuring detailed descriptions and charts depicting its price fluctuations over time.
